Changed Week 23
What Changed People Do with Worry
Title: When Anxiety Knocks
Text: Philippians 4:4–7

Sermon in a Sentence
When anxiety knocks, changed people answer the door with prayer, and trust God with what is on the other side.

I. When anxiety knocks, remember _____ _____ near. V.4-5

II. When anxiety knocks, release what you cannot _____. V.6

a. Prayer changes where the burden is carried. 1 Peter 5:7

b. Changed people don't necessarily have fewer problems, but changed believers have somewhere to take their cares.

III. When anxiety knocks, rest in the _____ God provides. V.7

a. His peace exceeds explanation.

b. His peace stands guard.

Call to action: When anxiety knocks this week:
1. Remember who is near; the Lord is at hand.
2. Release what you cannot control; turn your worries into prayer.
3. Rest in the peace God provides; you may not have an answer yet, but you do have His presence.

Changed people are not people who never experience worry.
Changed people are people who have learned where to take it.
