You're Invited to

Women's Bible Study Night

A Women's Gathering with Special Guest Speaker
Amanda Tadlock

Wednesday, June 17th @ 6:00 pm

First Baptist Church of Blanchard, LA

Meet Our Guest Speaker

Amanda serves on staff at Bethel Church in Jennings, Louisiana, alongside her husband, Michael, where she helps equip believers to grow in their knowledge of Scripture and live out their calling. A writer, speaker, Bible teacher, and senior pastor's wife, she brings more than a decade of frontline ministry leadership experience—with the stories to prove it!

Amanda describes her calling as being a “net mender”—helping believers connect the truths of Scripture so their faith grows stronger and the Kingdom of God moves forward. She does this through writing, creating Bible studies, and building ministry programs that equip others to live out God's Word with competence and confidence.

Amanda and Michael have been married for 15 years and are raising their miracle-story ten-year-old daughter, along with their feisty American Bulldog, Tex. Their journey has taken them from the fast pace of Houston to the quiet fields of a Louisiana rice farm, where Amanda enjoys all things creative, nature, and cooking for the people she loves.

Kingdom Womanhood

What does it mean to be feminine?

2

Think of a woman you know who exemplifies femininity –

- hold that in your mind –
- describe what makes her feminine.

3

Question for you -

Does the ideal you have in your mind make you feel like you're missing it, or will never be enough to do that? Like you don't even fit into your own ideal of womanhood?

4

Jesus said...in John 10:10
The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; -

Why do you think there is such a push from culture for "gender neutrality?"

It's a war on our identity.
